We would call attention to the following sorts which we have quite a large stock of in grade "B"—and especially nice stuff for this grade; it should please anyone as being extra fine value.

Etoile de France .....	Etoile de Lyon .....
Clara Watson .....	Gruss an Teplitz .....
Ulrich Brunner .....	Killarney .....
Mad. Adel Chatenay .....	Helena Cambier .....
Mad. Car. Testout .....	Meteo.....
Vis. Folkstone .....	Winnie Davis .....
P. C. deRohan .....	Jubilee .....
Baby Rambler (note the price for this)

SPECIAL ATTENTION is called to our grade "B" stock; we regard this grade as EXTRA GOOD VALUE; nearly all varieties are extra strong of roots. While this grade is of course not so heavy as the "A" for many purposes it is actually worth as much money. Transportation charges are also less than on a heavier grade.

"C" Grade: Talk about 'values'; in this grade it is our estimate and conviction that the buyer gets a GREAT BIG BUY; more intrinsic worth by considerable than he pays for. We do not recommend this grade for carrying along dormant to retail,—but nice for potting to carry a while, for mail orders or for lining out to grow for one season. It is about impossible for us to state in detail just what we can do on this grade at this writing as to varieties and quantities as we are still grading stock; but in ordering, if possible, give us some little 'leeway' as to varieties; EVERY DAY NOW COUNTS and if you are in the market for ROSES you can't get your order here any too soon,—as "the other fellow" is wanting some also. Prices for this grade; Teas, $3.50 per 100; H. T.'s, H. P.'s, Climbers, etc., $4.00 per 100.

YOUNG ROSES

Have you received our WHOLESALE LIST on Young Plants? If not, you should send for it at once. We sell several hundred thousand of these every year, and some of them travel three thousand miles.

In the Nursery or Florist Business THERE IS NO TIME LIKE TO-DAY; the man who 'puts it off until to-morrow'—well, you know. Thanking you for past favors, etc., we are,

Yours truly,

California Rose Co.
